

RITI E CELEBRAZIONI

A young boy with dark skin and short hair stands on a vast, flat expanse of reddish-brown earth. He is wearing a short-sleeved button-down shirt with a vibrant, abstract pattern in shades of red, orange, and blue, and dark-colored trousers. His expression is one of distress, with his mouth open as if crying and his eyes looking down. His hands are clasped in front of him, near the waistband of his pants. A long, dark shadow of the boy is cast onto the ground to his right, indicating a low sun position. The overall scene is stark and evocative.
